Children should not wear any jewellery, except when in accordance with religious or cultural customs. Earrings, including sleepers, present particular problems both of safety and security. In P.E. they are an obvious source of danger and must be removed or taped over. Children must take responsibility for removing earrings or taping studs themselves. Bracelets which cannot be removed must be covered with a sweatband.

Long hair must be tied back.

Boots, trainers, heeled shoes or open toed sandals are not suitable wear for school.
